REPORT

To facilitate paperless communication between teachers and students, a Hands – on Training Programme on Google Class room was organized by the IQAC of our college in collaboration with ICT & Soft Skill Cell on 28.08.2019 & 29.08.2018. Mrs. V.Meenakshi, M.Sc.,M.Phil., Assistant Professor of Computer Science, Lady Doak College, Madurai shared her expertise on “Effective Teaching through Google Application”.

The Training Programme on 28.08.2018 began formally with a prayer song. Dr. R. Barani, Associate Professor of Computer Science, member of IQAC welcomed the guest and the faculty participants of the science discipline. The session started with the lively presentation of the various application available in the google. The Resource person highlighted the possible modules to be utilized by the teacher in the google classroom. Her lecture was not merely theoretical but it was also practical. She, with her rich experience in this field, gave a clear idea on, how to create class, how to invite students to the class, how to create announcement regarding assignments, seminars, quiz tests etc., and how to grade marks, She insisted the participants to create google classroom on their own to have better understand, the faculty members acquired. The practical knowledge in the afternoon of what they had been told in the morning session. The staff members clarified their doubts regarding the application of google class room.

The next day training programme for the faculty members of Arts and Commerce began with the welcome address delivered by Dr.S.Sharmelee, Assistant Professor of English. Mrs. V.Meenakshi mentioned the benefits of the google application to the new audience. She explained the details patiently and also encouraged the faculty members to have Hands – on – Training now and then. A Two Day Hands-on-Training programme came to an end with vote of thanks. Mrs. Rajakumari proposed vote of thanks.
