Pollution Free Environment

In order to raise awareness about the importance of a pollution-free environment, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell has decided to dedicate one day each month to supporting the cause of a pollution-free environment. In this regard, our IQAC planned to organize "No Vehicle Day" on 20.04.2022. All students, teaching and non-teaching faculty were urged to take public transportation rather than driving their own vehicles. The purpose of this event is to raise awareness about global warming caused by fossil fuel combustion and to reduce road traffic congestion. Staff and students were insisted to reduce carbon footprints by riding bicycles and taking public transportation. They also walked or rode their bicycles to the campus. They feel good about themselves since they are helping to save the environment.
