Pollution Free Environment

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of our College has decided to spend one day each month to support the cause of a pollution-free environment in order to increase awareness about the necessity of a pollution-free environment. In this regard, our IQAC has organised a "No Vehicle Day" for May 26, 2022. Instead of driving their own cars, all students, teaching and non-teaching faculty were encouraged to use public transportation. The goal of this event is to raise awareness about the effects of fossil fuel use on global warming and to minimise traffic congestion. It was insisted on by staff and students that they limit their carbon footprints by riding bicycles and taking public transportation. They also rode their bicycles or walked to campus. They are pleased with themselves since they are assisting in the preservation of the environment.
