Comprehensive Report on Faculty Development Programme

A Faculty Development Programme titled National Level One Week Online Faculty Development Programme on “Emerging Trends in Pedagogy for Quality Excellence in Higher Education”, organized by IQAC of V.V. Vanniaperumal College for Women, Virudhunagar, and Jamal Mohamed College, Tiruchirapalli was held from 18th November 2024 to 22nd November 2024 at 2.30 p.m. virtually through Google Meet Link & YouTube Link. As the Higher education must adapt to changing landscapes and technologies to achieve quality excellence, Institutions need to stay updated on cutting-edge teaching practices to address pedagogical challenges with innovative strategies. The scope of the FDP was to help all the educators get quality excellence in pedagogy in higher education and make them better teachers.

Thus the Faculty Development Programme was focused with the sequence from pedagogical challenges to the development of soft skills as explained below.

- Pedagogical Challenges in the academic Scenario with advanced teaching skills
- Leveraging AI tools can remould teaching, learning, and research through automation, personalization, and data-driven insights.
- Developing innovative teaching skills enables teachers to engage students and improve learning outcomes.
- Fostering character building and emotional intelligence in students is crucial for developing well-rounded individuals with integrity, empathy, responsibility, and emotional intelligence.

- Moreover, equipping educators with essential soft skills helps minimize classroom disruptions, maximize engagement, and foster a focused learning environment.

Hence the topics were fixed with the eminent Resource Persons to meet the need of the educators across the nation. Three of the Resource Persons Dr. E. Ramganes, Senior Professor & Dean, Department of Educational Technology, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli, Dr. Dilip Barad, Professor and Head, Department of English, Maharaja Krishnakumarsinhji Bhavnagar University, Gujarat and Dr. Paul Newman, Associate Professor, Department of History, St Joseph's University, Bengaluru, Karnataka serve as NAAC assessors, who knew well of the Emerging Trends in Pedagogy for Quality Excellence in high Education. National Level One Week Online Faculty Development Programme on “Emerging Trends in Pedagogy for Quality Excellence in Higher Education” from 18.11.2024 to 24.11.2024

Analysis of Assessment

Analysis of Assessment
Respondents	Assessment	Percentage
414	Above 40	85%
72	Below 40	15%

The analysis of the assessment is based on the National Level One Week Online Faculty Development Programme on “Emerging Trends in Pedagogy for Quality Excellence in Higher Education”, conducted from 18.11.2024 to 24.11.2024, where the evaluation was carried out for 486 respondents. 85% of the respondents secured higher percentages in the assessment, which made the FDP successful and demonstrated its effectiveness in enhancing participant learning and engagement. The FDPs were more effective with a tailored approach, including pre-assessments to assess participants' baseline knowledge, additional resources for those who needed extra support, and interactive elements to boost engagement. Moreover, offering personalized feedback, conducting follow-up sessions, and incorporating varied assessment methods further improved learning outcomes and contributed to greater success in the FDP.

Background

Every Institution needs to have a pattern of character formation of students in accordance with the vision, mission and the characteristics of the higher education. The character education in higher education needs to be designed intact, its mean that when the students enter a new territory as freshmen in faculty, in the study program, until graduation as alumni must all be designed completely
