MINUTES OF RESEARCH ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETING

On 20.01.2025, the members of the Research Advisory Committee discussed the following subject matters.

Subject Matter 1 Reimbursement of excess amount spent under VVVCMBMRP Scheme.

Discussion It was informed that Dr.R.Radhalakshmi, Associate Professor of Zoology in letter dated 06.01.2025 requested to reimburse the excess amount Rs.5540/ spent on publication in a Scopus Indexed Journal. Following the previous year practice, reimbursement was approved.

The Committee insisted that in the ensuing years, the PIs have to strictly adhere to the guidelines of the Government Funding Agencies while utilizing the sanctioned amount under each head account in compliance with the order copy. Reappropriation of head account and reimbursement of excess amount are impossible.

Resolution It was resolved that the Reappropriation of head account and reimbursement of excess amount are not permissible under VVVCMBMRP Scheme.

Subject Matter Financial Assistance to Student Innovator

Discussion Miss. P.Elakkiya of I B.A. English was identified as “innovator” in the field of Climate Smart Agriculture. Recognizing the importance of her work, it was decided to scale up the production of leachate. The committee approved to carry out her work as a project under the guidance of a faculty in Microbiology discipline for having scientific approach to the concept.

Resolution It was resolved that financial assistance can be provided to carry out the project work with the assistance of “Guide Teacher” under VVVCMBMRP Scheme.

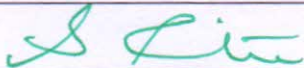

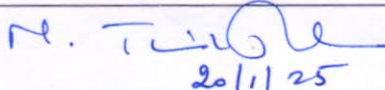

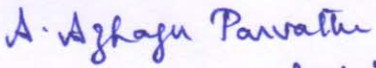

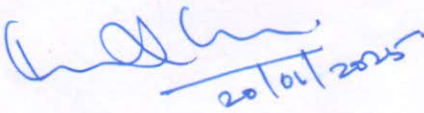

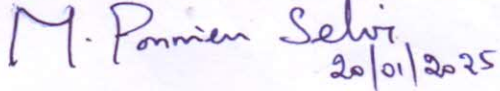

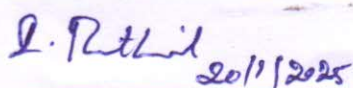

Subject Matter Any Others

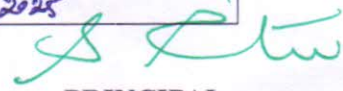

Discussion

As Internship Programme is included in the UG syllabus under TANSCH, there is a need for students to avail experts and resources in other organisations. Realising this, organising a 15-Day Summer Internship for Students from Life Sciences was proposed utilising the inhouse experts and laboratories. After a brief discussion about the budget of the chemicals, a nominal amount of Rs.750 /- per participant as registration fee was finalised considering the welfare of the students.

Resolution

It was resolved that the 15-Day Summer Internship Programme can be conducted after the Summative Examinations.
